MOTION TO SUPPRESS STATEMENT

NOW COMES the defendant, above, by and through counsel, Joe Hurley, who moves to suppress a post-seizure statement made by the defendant, in response to questioning of the authorities, on the basis that:

1. The defendant had been apprehended as a result of a foot chase and was clearly in the custody of the authorities when preliminary questioning began.

2. After the defendant responded to an initial question or questions, by providing substantive information, the seizing authorities then advised him of his Miranda rights.

3. The defendant maintains that from the moment he was under the control and direction of the authorities he was entitled to a rendition of Miranda rights before any questioning began.

WHEREFORE, the defendant moves to suppress all statements, including post-Miranda statements as fruit of the poisonous tree,
